The school building

The International House School in Nice

The school was opened in 1984 by William Rubinstein, who still runs it today. Before founding his own language school in Nice, this graduate of the University of Rennes taught French as a Foreign Language, first in the United States and then in New Zealand.

He pays very close attention to the quality of the teaching and is always personally involved in the day-to-day life of the school.

The school is situated on the 1st floor of IPAG, one of France's most prestigious business schools.

The classrooms are spacious and air-conditioned, and students have access to all the resources of a modern school. Outside of the classroom, students can visit the cafeteria and relax or study on the terrace.

The school has computers with internet access at your disposal and WIFI is also freely available so that you can connect to the internet using your own laptop.

OUR TEACHERS

We have a dynamic team of teachers who love teaching French. All of them are university graduates. They have years of teaching experience and specialise in teaching foreign students.

The continued ongoing development and training of teachers is a key feature of International House schools.

Our teachers recognise that the world of teaching is constantly evolving; therefore by introducing contemporary methods and materials into their lessons they ensure that they remain up to date.

You can expect the teaching staff to offer you support and encouragement whilst you attend the school so that you find learning French a pleasant experience and make rapid progress.

OUR STUDENTS

Our students come from all over the world and have many different reasons for studying French. Some of them are university students or professionals, some learn French just for fun, whilst others come to prepare for the official DEL F exam. In general our students are between the ages of 17 and 40, but we cater for a wide range of students.

This mix ensures an interesting and international study atmosphere.

Off season the total number of students varies between 30 and 50 per week.

In the summer 120 students attend our school every week.

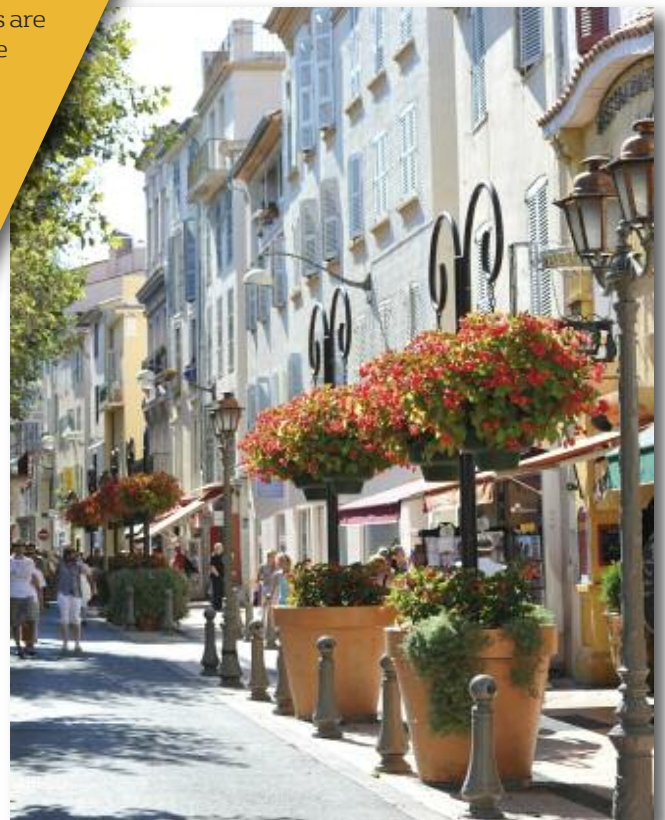

DYNAMIC TEACHING METHODS

We offer high-quality courses in a friendly atmosphere and emphasise the "communicative approach" to French.

Whether it is points of grammar, vocabulary or idioms that are involved, the student is always encouraged to participate.

This approach is complemented by a more "task orientated" way of teaching that follows the recommendations of the European Council.

This new approach allows the students "to learn in action", contributing to greater authenticity in the teaching method.

MATERIALS

Beginners are lent textbooks and all students are given handouts. Teachers have access to a large resource centre allowing them to keep their course topical, using CDs and DVDs for listening comprehension.

A folder with learning advice, information about the city and a map will be given to the students on arrival.

TEST

On the first day of class students take an oral and written test to identify their level.

Once this test has been corrected, they are placed in a class that corresponds to their level. Students may change levels with the agreement of the Director and the Director of Studies if they feel that they would be better suited to another class.

CERTIFICATE

At the end of the course, students are given a certificate detailing the course taken, their attendance and the level of written and spoken French they have reached.

LEVELS

The courses are divided into 5 different levels - from beginner to advanced - based on the directives of the Common European Framework of Reference for languages.

No matter what your level of French is, we will always find a class that is suitable for you.

A1 - Beginners level

Students at this level can deal with simple straightforward exchanges in familiar contexts. They can usually understand enough to keep a very basic conversation going.

A2 - Pre-Intermediate level

Students can understand and express information about the past, present and future. They can participate in everyday life, deal with most situations involved in travelling around a French speaking country and communicate personal information.

Visiting the Alps near Nice

B1- Intermediate level

Students can comfortably interact with native speakers. They can participate in discussions and express their opinions in familiar contexts. They can describe experiences in their past as well as explain and give reasons for their plans, desires and ambitions for the future.

B2 - Upper Intermediate

Students can clearly express their opinions on general topics in both spoken and written forms. They are familiar with more complex structures, have achieved a good level of fluency and communicate using broader vocabulary and idiomatic expressions.

C1 - C2 Advanced level

Students are capable of understanding most lectures, discussions and debates. Students are able to develop a well structured argument and provide supporting evidence in both oral and written forms. They feel comfortable operating in social, academic and professional spheres.

HOST FAMILIES

Living with a French family is the best way to become familiar with the French lifestyle, to get to know French customs and to practise the language.

We have different types of host families. They may be parents and children, a couple or a single parent who takes in students because he or she enjoys the company. You will encounter a warm family atmosphere where only French is spoken. There may be other students in the house, so you will also enjoy their company.

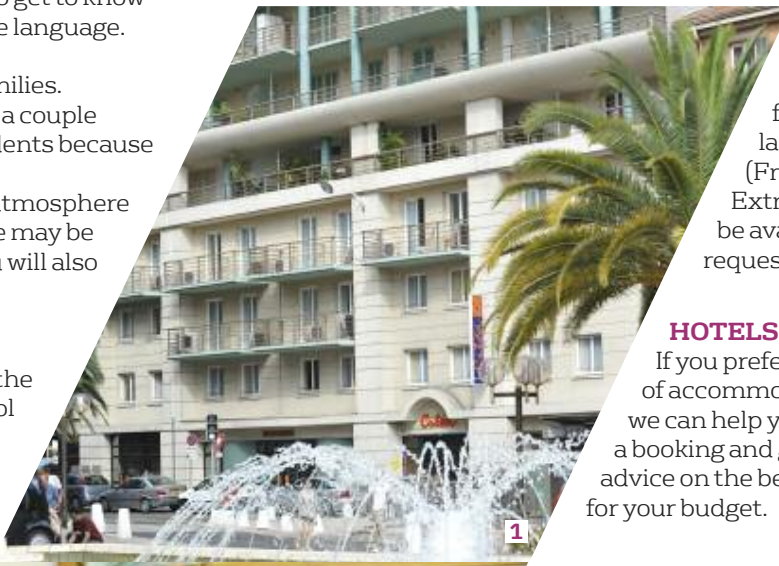

Most of the families live within a reasonable distance of the school; the maximum distance from the school to the host family is 20 minutes by bus or tram. Don't expect their homes to be luxurious, but they should be comfortable and hospitable.

Students are lodged in single or double rooms. Weekly laundry and cleaning is included. You will have your own keys to come and go as you please, but you will be expected to respect some basic rules and schedules, especially for mealtimes.

The accommodation is available from 4pm on the Sunday prior to the first day of the course

(Monday) until noon on the Saturday following the last day of class (Friday).

Extra nights may be available on request.
