Benalmádena, Costa del Sol

Benalmadena is an attractive coastal town of the Costa del Sol (approx. 50.000 inhabitants) situated on a hill at the foot of the Mijas mountains range, only 18 kms. from Málaga city and 8 kms. from Málaga international airport, which is within 3 hours flying time from most european capitals.

Originally a sleepy Andalusian fishing village with beautiful white washed houses, Benalmadena has developed into a lively and animated town which retains its old charm and character.

Situated between two seas and two continents, Andalusia is the largest of Spain's natural regions and the one with the highest population. The region is wide and richly varied, including the Sierra Morena, the Guadalquivir Valley and the Betica Ranges. The climate, as varied as its geographical features, is Mediterranean, with mild winters and dry summers.
